In addition, the Company and Liberator Securities reserve the right not to deliver any documents relating to the offering or allocation of newly issued ordinary shares to any subscriber who fails to comply with the prescribed procedures, criteria, and conditions set forth in this Rights Offering Notification to existing shareholders.

The bank account name must match the name of the subscriber.

This is required for refunding any subscription payment for shares that are not allocated or only partially allocated in the event of oversubscription. Refunds will be made via bank transfer, and the bank account name must be identical to the subscriber's name.

5. Subscription Conditions

5.1. In the case where shareholders subscribe for newly issued ordinary shares in full or less than their entitled rights, they will be allocated the full number of shares subscribed. Any fractional entitlements will be disregarded.

5.2. In the case where shareholders wish to oversubscribe (i.e., subscribe for shares in excess of their rights), they must first fully subscribe for their entitled shares before being eligible to oversubscribe. The oversubscription must be clearly stated in the "Subscription Form for Newly Issued Ordinary Shares" (Enclosure 4), and payment must be made in a single transaction covering both the entitled and oversubscribed amounts.

If there are remaining shares after the initial allocation to shareholders based on their rights, such remaining shares will be allocated to oversubscribing shareholders at the same offering price, as follows:

1. If the number of remaining shares is equal to or more than the total number of oversubscription requests, all oversubscribing shareholders who have fully paid will receive the full number of oversubscribed shares they requested.
2. If the number of remaining shares is less than the total number of oversubscription requests, the Company will allocate such remaining shares using the following steps:
 - a) Pro-rata Allocation: Based on each oversubscriber's shareholding proportion. The shareholding ratio of each oversubscriber will be multiplied by the number of remaining shares to determine the number of shares they are entitled to. Any fractions will be disregarded. The number allocated must not exceed the number of shares paid for.

- b) If shares remain after the allocation in (a), further allocation will be made to oversubscribers who were not fully allocated, again on a pro-rata basis, until no shares remain. Any fractional shares will be disregarded, and the number of shares allocated shall not exceed the number subscribed and paid for.

Important Note: The allocation of oversubscribed shares must not cause any shareholder (including persons acting in concert or persons under Section 258 of the Securities and Exchange Act B.E. 2535, as amended) to hold shares in a manner that would trigger a Mandatory Tender Offer, pursuant to the Notification of the Capital Market Supervisory Board No. TorChor. 12/2554 dated 13 May 2011 (as amended), unless such shareholder has been granted an exemption.

If there are still remaining shares after the Rights Offering and oversubscription allocation, the Company shall proceed to reduce its registered capital by cancelling the unsubscribed shares, subject to shareholder approval at the next general meeting.

5.3. The Company will allocate newly issued shares to shareholders whose names appear in the shareholder register on the Record Date, in proportion to their shareholding.

5.4. Shareholders who have subscribed and paid for the shares may not cancel their subscription under any circumstances.

5.5. In the case of payment by cheque, the subscription shall be deemed complete only upon successful clearing of the cheque within the specified period by the Company or Liberator Securities.

5.6. The Company or Liberator Securities reserves the right to refuse allocation of shares if:

1. Payment cannot be collected within the subscription period for any reason not caused by the Company or Liberator Securities, or
2. The subscription form is incomplete or unclear.

Shareholders are responsible for ensuring that payment is made in accordance with the specified methods and deadlines. Failure to comply may result in the shareholder being deemed to have waived their subscription rights, and the Company or Liberator Securities reserves the right not to allocate any shares.

5.7. Company and Liberator Securities reserve the right to amend payment methods, subscription conditions, or related procedures in the event of operational problems, limitations, or unforeseen circumstances.

6. Refund of Subscription Payment (If Applicable)

In the event that: the shareholder does not receive any allocation of the newly issued ordinary shares, or the shareholder oversubscribes but receives fewer shares than the number of oversubscribed shares requested, the Company or Liberator Securities will refund the unallocated portion without any interest or compensation, within 10 business days from the closing date of the subscription period, using one of the following methods:

6.1 For subscribers who maintain a securities trading account with Liberator Securities: The refund will be made via the Automatic Transfer System (ATS) to the subscriber's bank account as registered with Liberator Securities within 5 business days from the end of the subscription period.

6.2 For subscribers via the E-RO system: The refund will be made via bank transfer to the subscriber's bank account as provided in the E-RO system. The subscriber may specify an account with any of the following seven banks:

- Bank of Ayudhya Public Company Limited
- Bangkok Bank Public Company Limited
- Kasikornbank Public Company Limited
- Siam Commercial Bank Public Company Limited
- Krung Thai Bank Public Company Limited
- TMBThanachart Bank Public Company Limited
- United Overseas Bank (Thailand) Public Company Limited

Refunds will be processed within 7 business days from the end of the subscription period.

6.3 Refund of Subscription Payment for Subscriptions Made via Physical Subscription Form : If the subscriber does not receive the full allocation of the newly issued ordinary shares as requested, the refund of the excess subscription payment will be made by one of the following methods as specified by the shareholder in the subscription form:

- Bank Transfer: The refund will be transferred to the subscriber's bank account. The subscriber may specify a bank account with one of the following seven banks: Bank of Ayudhya Public Company Limited, Bangkok Bank Public Company Limited, Kasikornbank Public Company Limited, Siam Commercial Bank Public Company Limited, Krung Thai Bank Public Company Limited, TMBThanachart Bank Public Company Limited, or United Overseas Bank (Thailand) Public Company Limited.

The refund will be made within 7 business days from the last date of the subscription period, based on the bank account details submitted with the subscription form.

- Bank Cheque: A crossed cheque payable exclusively to the subscriber will be sent by registered mail to the mailing address listed in the shareholder register as of the Record Date (4 August 2025), within 10 business days from the last date of the subscription period.

In the event that the refund cannot be processed via the Automatic Transfer System (ATS) for any reason beyond the control of the Company or Liberator Securities, the refund for the unallocated or partially allocated amount will be made via crossed bank cheque, payable to the subscriber and sent by registered mail to the address recorded in the shareholder register as of 4 August 2025, within 10 business days from the end of the subscription period.

If the refund is made by cheque, the subscriber shall be responsible for any interbank clearing fees or cheque collection charges, if applicable.

In the event that the refund cannot be made within the specified time period, Liberator Securities shall pay interest to the subscriber at the rate of 7.5% per annum, calculated based on the unallocated subscription amount from the date after the deadline until the date the refund is successfully made.

However, once the Company or Liberator Securities has:

- Transferred the refund via the ATS to the subscriber's designated bank account, or
- Dispatched the crossed cheque via registered mail to the address listed in the shareholder register as of 4 August 2025, the subscriber shall be deemed to have duly received the refund, and shall no longer be entitled to claim any interest and/or damages from the Company or Liberator Securities.

In addition, the Company and Liberator Securities shall not be liable for any errors in the bank transfer, loss of cheque during mailing, or delivery issues via other methods deemed appropriate, if such errors arise from causes not attributable to the Company or Liberator Securities (e.g., unclear or incorrect name/address information not matching the shareholder register as of the Record Date).

7. Delivery of Newly Issued Ordinary Shares to Subscribers

Subscribers may choose one of the following methods for receiving their allotted newly issued ordinary shares:

7.1 In case the subscriber does not wish to receive share certificates but opts to use the scripless system through the Securities Depository Center (Thailand) (TSD), and wishes to deposit the shares into the trading account with a securities company where the subscriber maintains a securities trading account:

In this case, the Company will deposit the allotted shares with the Thailand Securities Depository Co., Ltd. ("TSD") for the benefit of the depositor, and the TSD will record the share balance in the account of the securities company. Evidence of deposit will be issued to the subscriber within 7 business days from the last day of the subscription period.

Simultaneously, the relevant securities company will record the share balance in the subscriber's trading account. The subscriber will be able to trade such shares on the Stock Exchange of Thailand ("SET") once the newly issued shares are permitted for trading by the SET.

If the subscriber chooses this method (Clause 7.1), the subscriber's name must exactly match the name of the trading account holder with the securities company where the shares are to be deposited. Otherwise, the Company reserves the right to issue share certificates in the subscriber's name as specified in Clause 7.3.

7.2 In case the subscriber does not wish to receive share certificates but opts to use the scripless system through the TSD, and wishes to deposit the newly issued shares into the issuer account (Issuer Account) with the TSD under Member No. 600:

In this case, the Company will deposit the allotted shares with the TSD, which will record the share balance in the issuer account (Member No. 600), and issue evidence of deposit to the subscriber within 7 business days from the end of the subscription period.

If the subscriber wishes to withdraw the shares from the issuer account, the subscriber must contact the TSD directly, and will be responsible for any applicable withdrawal fees as set by the TSD.

In this case, the subscriber must complete and submit the following documents:

- "Declaration of U.S. Person Status and Tax Residency in Other Countries (for individuals and juristic persons), specifically for those wishing to deposit securities into the Issuer Account", and
- "FATCA Status Questionnaire" (Attachment 7), duly signed and certified as accurate, to Liberator Securities along with other required subscription documents.

If the subscriber fails to complete or submit the FATCA Status Questionnaire or submits incomplete information, the Company reserves the right to issue share certificates in the subscriber's name as described in Clause 7.3.

Please note that withdrawing shares from the Issuer Account may take time, and subscribers may not be able to withdraw and sell the shares on the SET by the first trading date.

7.3 In case the subscriber wishes to receive share certificates in their name:

The Company, via the TSD, will send the share certificates for the number of allotted shares to the subscriber by registered mail, based on the name and address listed in the shareholder register as of the Record Date (4 August 2025), within 15 business days from the end of the subscription period.

In this case, subscribers will not be able to sell their allotted shares on the SET until they physically receive the share certificates, which may be after the first trading day of the newly issued shares on the SET.

If the subscriber does not specify a delivery method on the subscription form, the Company reserves the right to issue share certificates under Clause 7.3 by default.

8. Other Important Information

8.1 The name of the subscriber must match the name of the securities trading account holder. If the trading account number belongs to another person, the shares cannot be deposited into that account, and the subscriber will not be able to sell the newly issued ordinary shares on the first trading day. In such cases, the Company reserves the right to issue share certificates in the name of the subscriber.

8.2 Please ensure that the member number of the Thailand Securities Depository (TSD) (i.e., broker code) to which you wish to have your shares deposited is accurately provided. If an incorrect broker code is provided, the allotted shares may be transferred elsewhere. The Company and Liberator Securities Public Company Limited will not be responsible for any loss or delay in recovering the shares.

8.3 In the event that the Company is unable to refund the subscription payment to the subscriber within the specified period due to any circumstance beyond the reasonable control of the Company or Liberator Securities, neither the Company nor Liberator Securities shall be liable for any interest or other damages. Only the subscription amount for the unsubscribed or unallocated shares will be refunded to the subscriber, as stated under Section 5 "Terms and Conditions of Subscription."

8.4 If the number of shares specified in the Subscription Form does not match the amount of subscription payment received by the Company, the Company or Liberator Securities reserves the right to allocate shares based solely on the amount of payment received.

8.5 For subscribers who wish to deposit the newly issued ordinary shares into the Issuer Account (Member No. 600) in their name, please complete and submit the "Declaration of U.S. Person Status and Tax Residency in Other Countries (for Individuals and Juristic Persons), exclusively for those intending to deposit securities into the Issuer Account" and the "FATCA Status Questionnaire" to the Thailand Securities Depository. If the subscriber fails to submit the required supporting documents, the Company reserves the right to issue physical share certificates in the name of the subscriber.
